Saint John I, Pope and Martyr

OPENING

O God, come to my assistance.

Lord, make haste to help me.

Lord, open my lips.

And my mouth will proclaim your praise.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

HYMN

This Is the Day

This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made, that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice, we will rejoice,
and be glad in it, and be glad in it.

Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Death is conquered by his love;
all creation sings with gladness:
praise him, earth below and heaven above.

At the break of Easter morning
Mary came and found the tomb;
but the stone was rolled away, and Jesus met her in the gloom.

Now the Lord of life is risen;
now our sorrow turns to song;
we who walked in death's dark shadow are set free from all that long.

Psalm 57 Rescue from the Wicked

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. Alleluia.

If truly you speak justice, judge what is right, O sons of men.

For in your heart you work iniquity on the earth; your hands weave injustices.

The wicked have become estranged from the womb; they have wandered astray from the womb; they have spoken false things.

Their fury is like that of a serpent; like that of a deaf asp, stopping up its ears.

Which will not hear the voice of the enchanters, nor of the wizard casting spells wisely.

God will crush their teeth in their mouth; the Lord will break the molars of the lions.

They will come to nothing, like water flowing away; he has bent his bow until they are weakened.

Like wax that is melted, they will be taken away; fire has fallen upon them, and they will not see the sun.

Before your thorns could perceive the bramble, he swallows them up as if alive, as if in wrath.

The just will rejoice when he has seen the retribution, he will wash his hands in the blood of the sinner.

And a man will say: "Truly there is a fruit to the just one; truly there is a God judging them on the earth."

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. Alleluia.

Psalm 48 The Folly of Trusting in Riches

> Ant. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; let us therefore celebrate the feast. Alleluia.

Hear these things, all you nations; give ear, all you inhabitants of the world.

All sons of earth and sons of man, rich and poor together.

My mouth will speak wisdom, and the meditation of my heart will speak understanding.

I will incline my ear to a parable; I will open my proposition on the harp.

Why should I fear in the evil day? The iniquity of my heel will surround me.

Those who trust in their own strength and who glory in the multitude of their riches:

a brother does not redeem, will a man redeem? He will not give God his expiation, nor the price of the redemption of his soul; and he will labor continually and will still live to the end.

He will not see destruction, when he sees the wise dying.

The fool and the senseless will perish together, and they will leave their riches to strangers.

And their sepulchres will be their houses forever, their tabernacles throughout all generations.

They have called their lands by their own names.

And man, when he was in honor, did not understand; he has been compared to senseless beasts, and made like them.

This way of theirs has been a scandal to them, and afterward they will praise with their mouth.

Like sheep they have been placed in hell; death will feed on them.

And the just will have power over them in the morning, and their help will grow old in hell for their glory.

Yet truly God will redeem my soul from the hand of hell, when he receives me.

Do not fear when a man will have been made rich and when the glory of his house will be multiplied.

For when he dies, he will take nothing with him, and his glory will not descend with him.

For his soul will be blessed in his life; he will confess to you when you have done well for him.

He will enter into the generations of his fathers; he will never see light.

Man, when he was in honor, did not understand; he has been compared to senseless beasts, and made like them.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; let us therefore celebrate the feast. Alleluia.

OLD TESTAMENT CANTICLE

OLD TESTAMENT CANTICLE (JEREMIAH 31:10–14)

Hear the word of the Lord, O nations, and declare it in the distant islands, and say:

"He who scattered Israel will gather him, and he will guard him as a shepherd guards his flock."

For the Lord has redeemed Jacob, and he has freed him from the hand of one stronger than he.

And they will come and give praise on mount Zion.

And they will flow together to the good things of the Lord: for grain, and wine, and oil, and the offspring of cattle and flocks.

And their soul will be like a watered garden, and they will be hungry no more.

Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance, the young men and old men together.

And I will turn their mourning into joy, and I will comfort them.

And I will gladden them from their sorrow.

And I will soak the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people will be satisfied with good things, says the Lord.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

GOSPEL CANTICLE: BENEDICTUS (LUKE 1:68-79)

THE CANTICLE OF ZECHARIAH (BENEDICTUS) (LUKE 1:68–79)

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia.

Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and accomplished the redemption of his people.

And he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David his servant.

As he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets, those who have been from the beginning:

Salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

To show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant, the oath which he swore to our father Abraham, that he would grant to us, that being freed from the hand of our enemies, we might serve him without fear, in holiness and justice before him, throughout all our days.

And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his ways.

To give knowledge of salvation to his people, for the remission of their sins, through the compassionate mercy of our God, by which the Rising Sun has visited us from on high, to illuminate those sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, to direct our feet in the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia.

MORNING INTERCESSIONS

Rejoicing in the resurrection of the Lord, let us offer our prayers, saying:

For the church throughout the world, that it may proclaim the resurrection with boldness and joy: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For the newly baptized, that they may grow in the faith they have received and be sustained by the Easter community: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For all who are in darkness or despair, that the light of Easter may dawn in their lives: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For those who have died in the hope of resurrection, that they may share fully in the Easter victory of Christ: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For all nations, that the peace of the risen Christ may overcome division and bring reconciliation: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For ourselves, that we may live as Easter people, bringing the good news of new life to those around us: we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray as the Lord himself has taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Risen Lord, you appeared to your disciples and breathed your peace upon them. Come to us now with your peace, strengthen our faith, and send us forth to be witnesses of your resurrection; who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

DISMISSAL

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless us: the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
